About INTACH

Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural Heritage is a non-profit membership organisation dedicated to conservation and preservation of India's natural, cultural, living, tangible and intangible heritage.

In 1984, INTACH was founded and registered as a Charity under the Registration of Societies Act, 1860. Over these past decades, INTACH has established a network of over 175 regional and local Chapters in different parts of the country.

About Charles Wallace

Charles Wallace was born in Calcutta in 1855. He lived, worked and flourished there, founding the Shaw Wallace Company (though there are no connections now between Charles Wallace India Trust and Shaw Wallace). He died in 1916, bequeathing his fortune for the benefit of promoting culture and heritage in India. The legacy of this bequest is being implemented in the form of research scholarships in the field of heritage conservation by INTACH.
