NOTES:

1. The following must be uploaded while applying online:
  - (a) Self-attested copy of the mark-sheet of the qualifying examination; and self-attested copy of the certificate certifying the date of birth.
  - (b) Self-attested copies of all other degrees/diplomas/certificates etc.
  - (c) Where grades are mentioned, the candidate must upload the conversion formula adopted by the University/Institution.
  - (d) Self attested copy of N2 Certificate or higher of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT).

2. The Japanese Diplomatic Mission in India will conduct a primary (preliminary) screening of applicants by means of submitted application documents, written examination language (Japanese Language & English Language) Test and interview. The Japanese and the English language examinations must be taken by all applicants.
  - The result of the Japanese language examination will be used as reference data for placement at a university and for Japanese-language education to be provided upon the applicant's arrival in Japan.

  - In particular, if an applicant with limited proficiency in Japanese desires to pursue studies in fields such as Japanese linguistics, Japanese literature, Japanese history, or Japanese law —fields that require sufficient knowledge of the Japanese language — he/she will not be selected as a grantee unless there are exceptional circumstances.

MEXT will conduct a secondary screening based on the results of the primary screening conducted by the Japanese diplomatic mission, and select applicants as MEXT scholarship grantees whose placement at a university of their choice has been decided.

- Applicants who have passed the primary screening at a Japanese diplomatic mission are not necessarily accepted as MEXT scholarship grantees.
  - Applicants who were not accepted by any universities which the applicants named in their Placement Preference Form will not be selected as MEXT scholarship grantees.
3. The best score of either English or Japanese test will be considered as written examination score. Interviews will be conducted by Ministry of Human Resource Development (Department of Higher Education) by committee of experts in various subject fields followed by the Embassy of Japan on the same day or as decided by Mission. Candidates whose written examination score does not satisfy a required standard will not be interviewed by the Embassy.
  4. The medium of instruction in most of Japanese Universities is "Japanese Language" hence candidates are required to go under six months Japanese Language Course in Japan, which is included in this program, before commencement of their main studies.
  5. Any candidate who desires to move on to a regular graduate course after studying as a Research Student or to move on from a master's course or a professional graduate course to a doctoral course can move on to a higher education through passing an entrance examination given by the university concerned.
  6. Equivalent foreign degrees will be considered.
  7. M. Phil will be treated as one year's research experience unless a certificate from the University is enclosed stating the duration of the M.Phil Course in that University.
  8. Candidates who have already been abroad for study/research/training for more than six months at a time either on a scholarship or on their own, are eligible to apply only if they have been in India for at least two consecutive years after their return from abroad. Applications of candidates, who are staying abroad, will not be considered.
