With reference to your letter dated ..... an application form is being sent herewith. It should be filled in by the candidate in his own handwriting after carefully going through the rules and conditions stated overleaf and returned to the above address for the consideration of the trust.

There is every likelihood of such forms not being considered at all, as do not have all the information desired therein.

It should be noted that the intention of the trust in awarding these interest free loan scholarship, is to help such brilliant and deserving students as are able to derive maximum benefit of higher education and have been able to maintain first class academic career. Students other than First Divisioners have, therefore, comparatively little chance of award of a scholarship.
