

HUMAN WELFARE FOUNDATION

In its bid to contribute to social betterment of the country, the Foundation continues to pursue several initiatives. However, education remains its prime focus as the level of literacy among Muslims in India is extremely low. We need to promote it in an organised way and support -- both morally and financially -- those who want to gain knowledge.

LOAN SCHOLARSHIP 2016-17

The program promotes higher education among youths, offering 500 scholarships (250 UG courses and 250 PG courses) to deserving candidates. The initiative covers 12 northern states -- from Assam to Gujarat. Since the foundation believes in social betterment at the grassroots level in the country, it focuses more on Social Sciences and Humanities for the selection of candidates.
